JAIL INMATE ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

SUMMIT COUNTY, CO – A 31-year-old female inmate was transported to St. Anthony Summit Medical Center following a suicide attempt at the Summit County Detention Facility Monday morning. Deputies immediately began life-saving measures, including CPR, after the woman was found unresponsive in her cell.

Emergency responders from Red, White, and Blue Fire Rescue and the Summit County Ambulance Service arrived on scene and continued resuscitation efforts before transporting the woman to Summit Medical Center. She was later transported to a Denver-area hospital, where she remains in critical condition.

At the request of the Summit County Sheriff, the matter is being investigated by the Colorado Bureau of Investigation, Jefferson County Sheriff's Office and the District Attorney's Office.

No further information is available at this time, as the matter is under investigation.
